

WORKSHOPS

WORKSHOPS ON TEACHING ENGLISH TO REFUGEES & MIGRANTS

In-person or online workshops for English teachers worldwide

Make the most of our expertise with deep dive in-person or online workshops, delivered for your team.

We don't only have decades of experience at teaching English to refugees and migrants. We're also adept workshop facilitators who'll get your attendees leaving inspired, educated, and with a toolbox of practical ideas.

Get in touch

Trauma-Informed Practice

A workshop or webinar on how trauma and displacement affect your learners in class, including practical strategies for trauma-informed teaching and creating a safe classroom space.

Half-day workshop: £500
Webinar: £200

Working with beginners

Learn how best to work with ERM Beginners, including those who cannot write in their native language. Explore strategies and learner difference for learners at ESOL Pre-Entry/Entry 1 (or CEFR Pre-A1/A1) in this shorter webinar

Managing challenging situations

However experienced you are, when working with refugee and migrant learners you'll experience challenging classroom situations. Choose from a shorter webinar or longer workshop, to give you the confidence to manage many situations with calm and ease.

Half-day workshop: £500
Webinar: £200

Cultural competency in the classroom

When working with refugee and migrant learners, two-way cultural awareness is vital. Explore best practice, and discover how to learn from your learners as you or longer workshop.

Half-day workshop: £500

Webinar: £200

Materials & activities for a syllabus in functional English

Explore materials and activities for ERM learners, create your own and get instant feedback in this fun, lively session.

Add-on for a full-day workshop: Lesson planning in the ERM classroom

Half-day workshop: £500

Full-day workshop: £1000

Webinar: £200

help them to navigate host country culture.

Half-day workshop: £500

Webinar: £200

Avoiding burnout

In this one-hour session, you'll explore how teacher burnout happens, how to prevent it, and how to cope if and when it does.

As well as teaching, Stephanie is also a wellbeing expert and author who has delivered numerous workshops on stress management.

One hour workshop or webinar: £200

Any questions?

Get in touch to enquire about prices, details, and to learn how we can help your teachers become more

Mark Williams
Brighton & Hove City Council

Stephanie's pace, style and presentation worked well with our audience.

We had at least 30 of our members attend online, one of the largest audiences ever.

Sarah Springford
CEO, Brighton Chamber

Stephanie led a workshop for 50 attendees at Brighton Summit: Unite.

It was very popular and afterwards people talked about how much they had taken away and would implement straight away. Always a good sign!

Kate O'Brien
Evolution Arts

Stephanie is a pleasure to work with. She's very personable, organised, and has a good sense of humour.

I can see that the students benefit from the workshops that she provides, and we would absolutely recommend her.

TRINITY COLLEGE LONDON

TERM

Teach English to Refugees and Migrants

Privacy Policy

© TERM, 2026

info@teachenglishtorefugees.com

